Professional Education Programs

Class will meet on Mondays and Wednesdays for three consecutive weeks on the UNC Asheville campus and will prepare you for this important exam. The SAT is offered at area high schools on March 14, May 2, June 6, October 3, November 7, and December 5.

Note: Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, the class scheduled for November 25 will be held on November 24.

Time: 6:00 – 8:30 p.m.
Tuition: $295 (includes textbook with practice test questions)

This standardized test is widely accepted at undergraduate colleges and universities nationwide. The Scholastic Aptitude Test I (SAT I) is a multiple-choice test designed to gauge verbal and mathematical abilities, and includes a writing component. This test preparation program concentrates on test-taking techniques, timesaving methods, logical reasoning, verbal ability and mathematical competence. Past exams and simulated materials are used to teach question types and strategies. A commitment to homework is strongly encouraged. Students should bring the calculator they will use on the SAT. Calculators permitted while testing are: graphing calculators, scientific calculators, basic four-function calculators (not recommended).

Late Registration Fee: Additional $15 for registrations received less than 5 working days prior to the first class session.
Cancellation/Refund Policy: The Dept. of Professional Education Programs reserves the right to cancel any class due to low enrollment. In that event, you will receive a full refund within three weeks. If you are registered and wish to drop this class, you must notify us at 828/250-2353 or email nwilliam@unca.edu at least five working days before the start of class in order to receive a refund (less a $25 processing fee).
